

Interesting News Letter From Cleora.

We have been having summer weather all through September and up to now in October, but it looks like we are going to have some fine fall weather now. The week of rain has put everybody behind with picking cotton. We are having fine weather for sowing grain, and all who can are sowing. A good many are going to try wheat again this fall. There is more clover and grass being planted in this neighborhood this fall than I have ever known before, as one of the results of our institute last summer. The crops with us are poor, but the price of cotton and seed will help out the short crops.

The Brunson school opened last Monday with Miss Sara Stevens as principal and Miss Carrie Collins assistant. This is Miss Collins sixth year with us, we have about 45 or 50 scholars. They will have a Box party at the school house sometime in November to raise money for some globes and charts needed in the school.

Mr. Nat. Bartley has been quite sick for several days, but is better now.

The R. F. D. mail route from Cleora has been extended so as to take in L. R. Brunson, Geo. Strom, Henry Hill, A. B. Holmes and T. A. Williams. It is a great convenience to have your mail brought right to your gate every morning.

Mrs. A. B. Holmes, who went to New York some time ago for her health has very much improved, and has decided to teach music this winter in Boston, Mass.

Mr. Sam Cheatham came over from his home in Georgia last week and spent a day or two with his daughter, Mrs. B. R. Thomas.

Mr. A. L. Brunson was right sick last week, but is up and out again.

Mrs. B. R. Thomas was called to Columbia last week to see her sister, Mrs. Jenkins who was seriously sick.

The State Veterinarian was wired for by Mr. John Morgan about 10 days ago to see a sick mule. When he came he pronounced it glanders, and had the mule killed and examined or tested all his stock, and found a horse had it, that Mr. Morgan hadn't noticed anything being wrong with. So it was killed too, this is a right heavy loss for Mr. Morgan. While the State will pay him something for them he will get nothing like what it will take to replace them.

Mr. Abbie Reel was down last week on a visit to Mr. W. T. Reel. Mr. H. Hill spent last week visiting at Johnston.

Our two mail carriers, Mr. Clack Seigler, who has the Star Route from Edgefield to Cleora, and Mr. Bunch Timmerman, who has the R. F. D. route from Cleora, never miss a day, no matter how cold or wet. Mr. Lewis McGhee has had a very sick child but is better.

Resolutions Upon The Death of Mrs. W. P. Winn.

Whereas, God in His infinite wisdom hath removed from our midst our beloved friend and co-worker, Mrs. W. P. Winn, we the members of Rehoboth missionary society submit the following:

1st. That in the death of our sister, our community has lost a true friend, our church and society a faithful, consecrated member.

2nd. That we give thanks to God for the life, character and labors of our friend, and humbly submit to His will, fully realizing that our all-wise Father never maketh a mistake.

3rd. That we extend to the bereaved family our tenderest, deepest sympathy in this their lonely hour, and commend them to the love and mercy of Him who alone can bear them perfect peace and sympathy.

4th. That a copy of this tribute be spread on our minute book, published in The Edgefield Advertiser and sent to the family.

Miss Martha Strom,
Miss Julia Strom,
Miss Carrie Talbert.

Germany Will Buy and Store Cotton.

There is reason to believe that both the Germans and the Allies are watching keenly the present cotton situation,—that Germany is as anxious to have cotton as the Allies are to prevent her from obtaining it, and it is not inconceivable that there may be evidences before very long of international competition for the possession of the South's great staple. It is at least a possibility that cotton will be purchased in large quantities for foreign account and stored in the warehouses of the South to be shipped out as needed and as opportunities for shipments arise.

No one has ever accused the Germans of being lacking in far-sight.

edness. Their ability to look into the future and to provide for every contingency is marvelous. They are already looking forward to what will happen when peace is restored, and that they will make a supreme effort to recover their lost trade with other nations cannot be doubted. It is not reasonable to believe that they would look with complacency upon the absolute control of the cotton market by the mills of England and America, permitting them to secure their supplies of cotton at very low prices, and defer their own purchases until after peace is made and take the chances of securing then their own stocks at much higher prices. Is it not reasonable to believe that they will arrange to buy cotton as the spinners of other nations buy it, and can they not easily make arrangements to have their purchases of cotton stored until they can transport it to their own shores?—Hon.
